FOREWORD

Many days were filled with work, play, tears, and laughter as 1967 faded into 1968 at Southwest. Football highlighted the fall with pep rallies, and most important, Homecoming. Thanksgiving, and Christmas, with a "smattering" of basketball practice, came and went with many wonderful memories left behind.

The green Freshmen soon became "almost" sophisticated Sophomores as Spring blossomed with the Azalea Trail and suddenly graduation loomed ahead. Many will leave to follow other paths while some remain to carry on the old "Southwest" tradition.

The Whispering Pines, along with the Pine Burr, closes shop for another year with a sigh for days gone by. Those memories, we hope, will always be at hand to re-live many precious moments spent during that unforgettable 1967-68 school year.

DEDICATION - - - Miss Olive Hay

Whan that Aprille . . .

Your own funeral, you say?

Grrrr-r-r

We dedicate our annual to a woman who is herself dedicated . . . to Southwest, to us as students, and to life itself.

Miss Hay, you have made us learn even though we often wanted to lag behind in our studies. We have you to thank for giving us a broader interest in the world of literature and speech. Your expressiveness in teaching has made each class period an adventure in learning.

The 1968 Whispering Pines is only the tangible means of containing the intangible admiration that we have for you. Therefore, we dedicate our yearbook, which is so all important to our two years at Southwest, to you—Miss Hay.

OFFICE OF PRESIDENT

The Sophomore Class of 1968
Southwest Mississippi Junior College
Summit, Mississippi 39666

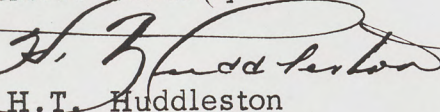

Dear Sophomores;

We hope that your stay at Southwest has aroused a spirit of enthusiasm within you toward accomplishing your future goals. If we have succeeded in exciting the spirit of progress within each individual, then our efforts have not been spent in vain, and we are happy.

It is our hope that the foundation that you have gained here will inspire you to higher planes in the years ahead, and each of you, when you become an Alumnus of Southwest, may exclaim in all truth and sincerity, "I helped make Southwest what it is, and it is mine."

I wish you God's speed in all of your future endeavors.

Most sincerely

H.T. Huddleston

The recreational, academic, musical, and religious organizations work together at S.M.J.C. to form a vital part of campus life. The students participating in on-campus activities gain knowledge about themselves and others through the guidance of capable sponsors. We are indeed proud of this part of Southwest and its role in making living on campus more interesting and worthwhile.

If you don't let me see, I'll throw a temper tantrum.

Pay those bills or else.

Really think we're gonna study, huh?
Think again.

Cheryl, don't be mad. I was kidding when I said I wouldn't carry your suitcase.

Where in the world did they go?

And we had to go in at 5:30.

Peaches' fan club.

Whatever he did, it must have been right.

"Has anybody seen my contact?"

Do you think they would like to do two bits again?

If only the windows on the girls dorm didn't have curtains, blinds, shades, and BARS!

If you snap that picture, I'll cut your eyelashes off and hang lead weights on your hair.

"I don't think she believes you, Henry."

I don't care if you don't believe me; they did pour starch in my bath water.

Sudie, get off the ladder so they can take the picture.

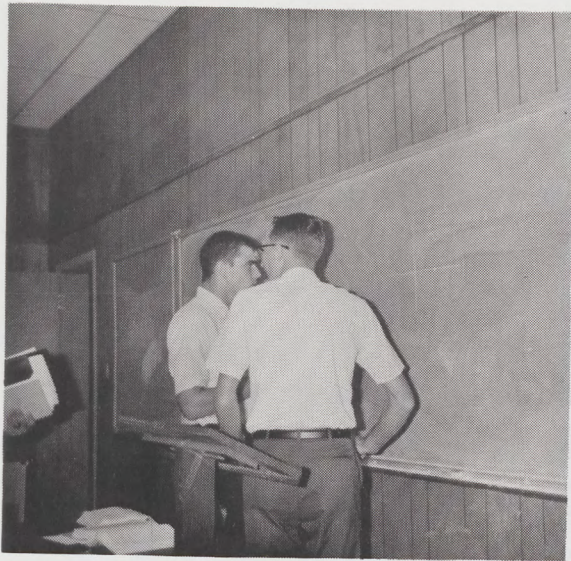

When is the next freight leaving?!

Hmm!

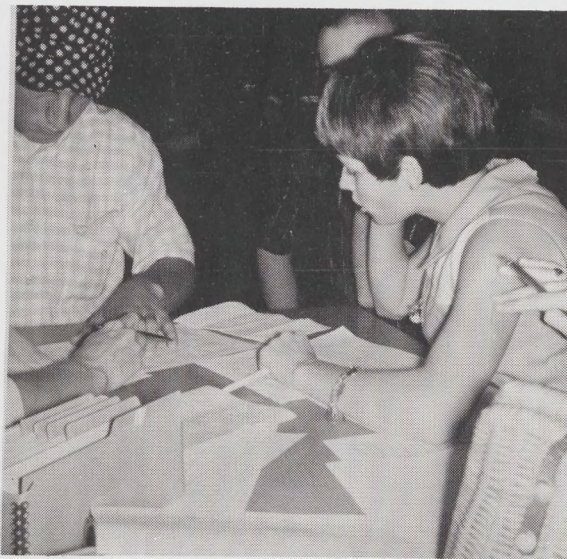

"Now, Mr. Dickerson, it's really very simple."

Greet the chaos. Hello, chaos.

Look, Mom, look. See me study. •

If you think that was funny, just take a look at this.

Run, Ref, you might catch them yet.

"Here come the Bears!"

Poole does ballet step number three.

Would you believe they're on the same team?

Hey! Where's everybody going?

Obey, you lowly Freshman, obey!!!

Charlotte, you threw out my lunch!

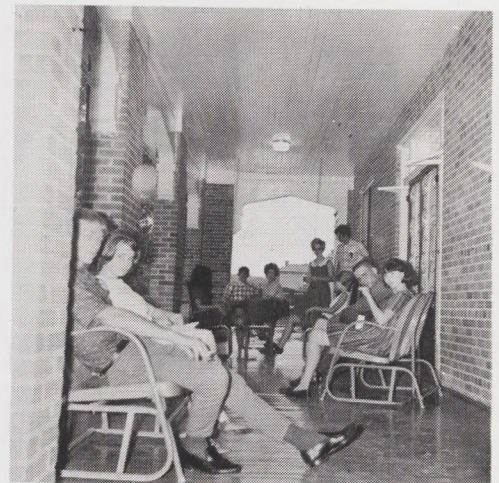

What detergent should we use: Tide, Breeze, or Cheer?

Don't steal anymore of my french fries, Patsy.

Real tough guys!

All right everyone, let's see daylight between the couples.

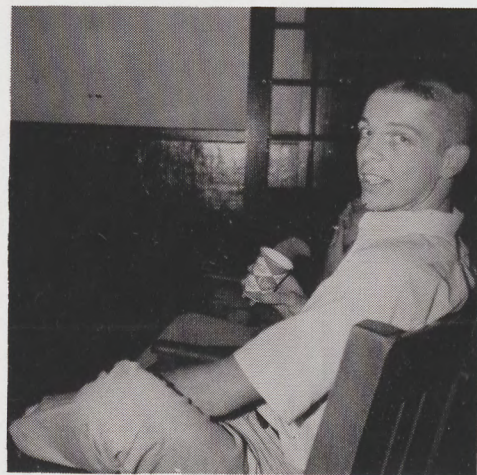

Mother said I should never read such things!

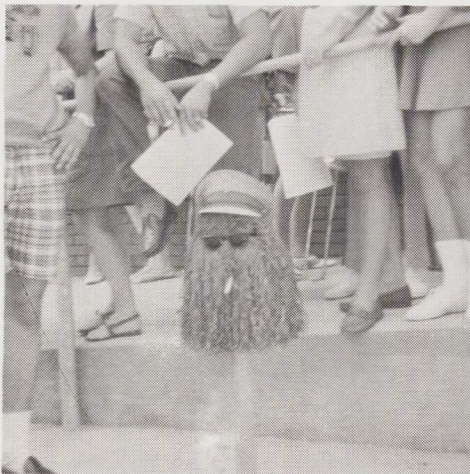

Just had to put this one in.

"Gosh, lee, You don't really mean that?!"

You don't really believe I'd be caught drinking Coke, do you?"

Presenting . . . Mr. SMJC!!!!

Everybody thinks I'm studying. Boy, have I got them fooled.

The Mickey Mouse Club!

Hold on TIGHT, Sudie.

Congratulations!! You're in the Army now.

Hup 2, 3, 4

Next time you'll say PLEASE!

Is he still breathing??

Somehow I feel different today—

Ready, aim . . .

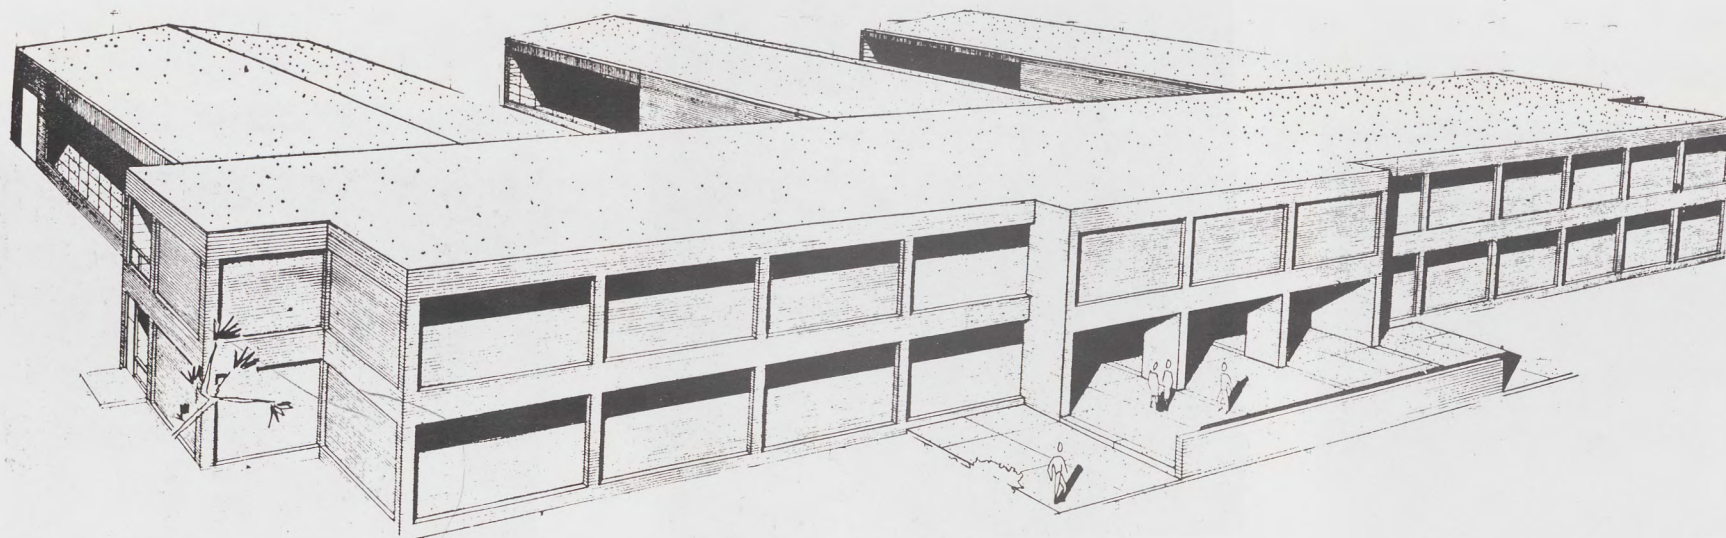

The wages of sin is raking leaves.

And this is Miss June.

Friendliness just comes naturally to George Burris, an English major at Southwest.

As treasurer of the Student Government Association and a member of Phi Theta Kappa, George has done his part to make SMJC a better place for other students.

We welcome this outstanding student to the 1968 Hall of Fame.

As editor of the school paper, The Pine Burr, Susan Price has had her hands filled, planning the copy material, layouts and deadline dates during the past year.

Susan, an English major, is also a member of the Westminster Fellowship, Phi Theta Kappa, and the Student Government Association.

A quiet girl, she is well-liked by her teachers and fellow-students and is most deserving as a Hall of Fame member.

A pre-med major, Victor Walsh lends a distinctive air of scholarship and poise to the 1968 Hall of Fame.

His Willingness to serve has made him a favorite with all of the faculty members and students.

Victor is president of Phi Theta Kappa, a member of the Student Government Association and the Baptist Student Union.

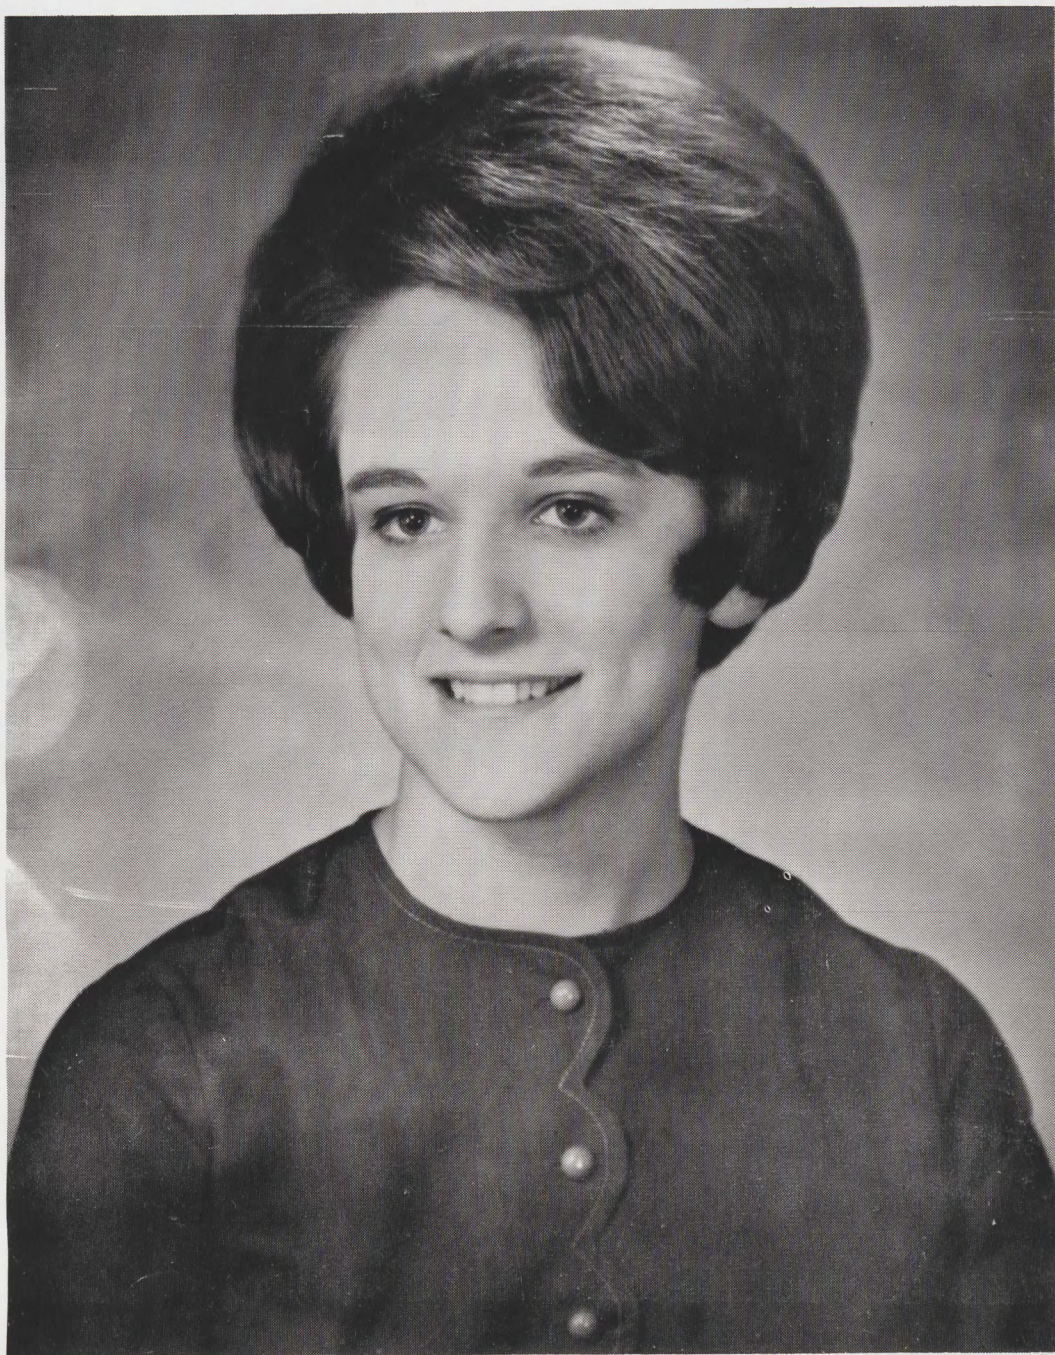

We proudly welcome him into SMJC Hall of Fame.

Another worthy choice for the 1968 Hall of Fame is Sammie Sue Fenn. Sammie, a business education major, serves SMJC as editor of the WHISPERING PINES and secretary of the Student Government Association. She is also a member of the Baptist Student Union.

This most active student is indeed welcomed to the 1968 Hall of Fame.

Go!

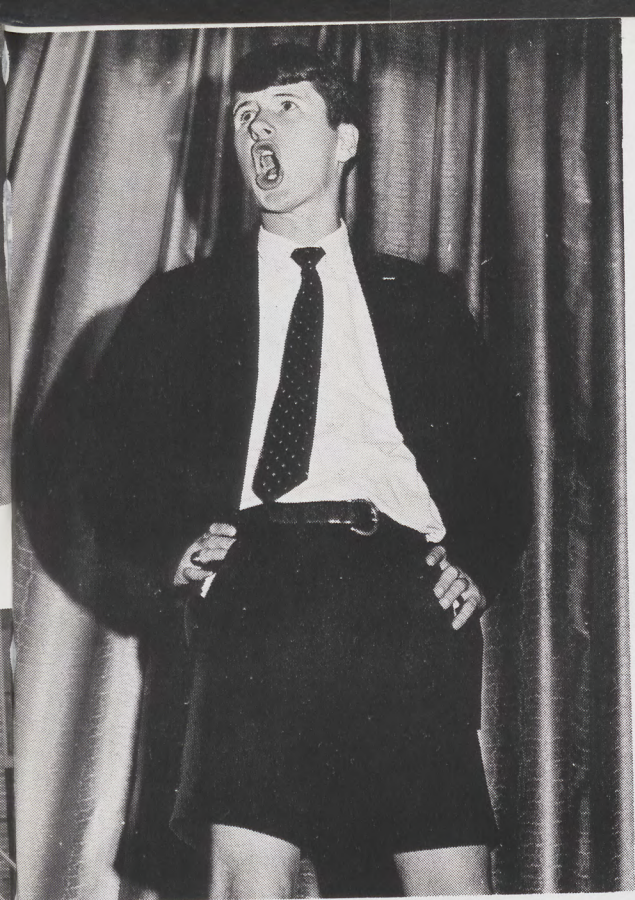

Somehow, I feel different today!

Notice of eviction. Sorry, girls.

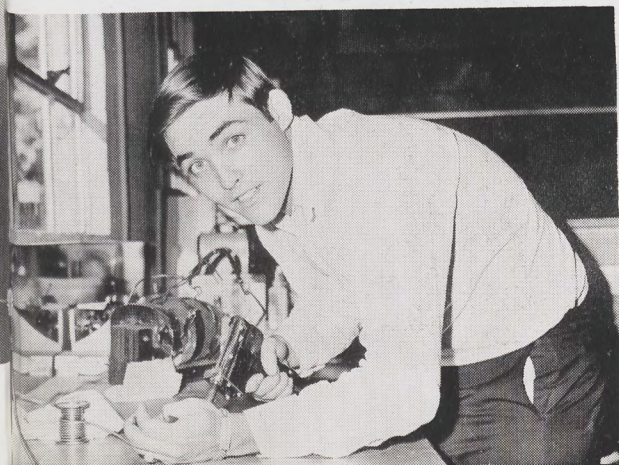

You wanna fight!!!???

Yea! I wanna fight !!

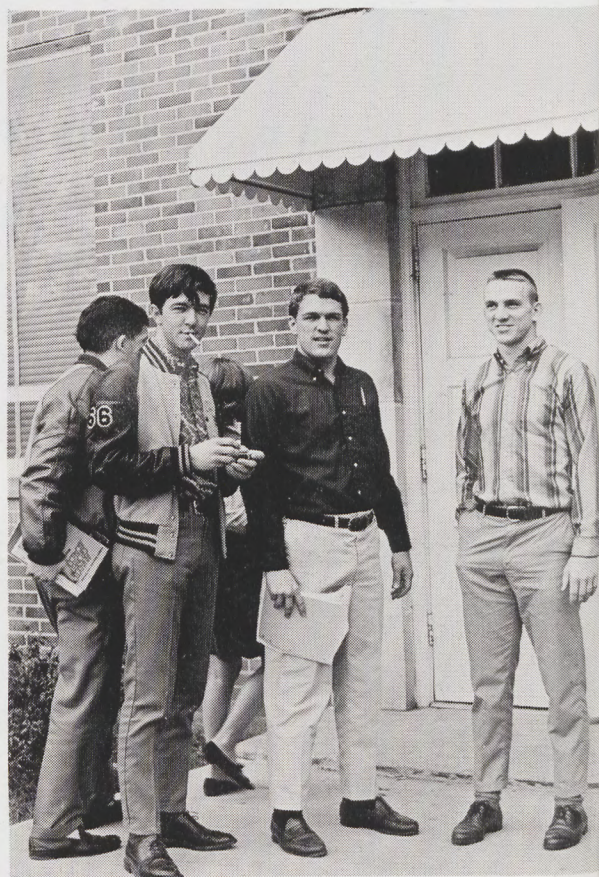

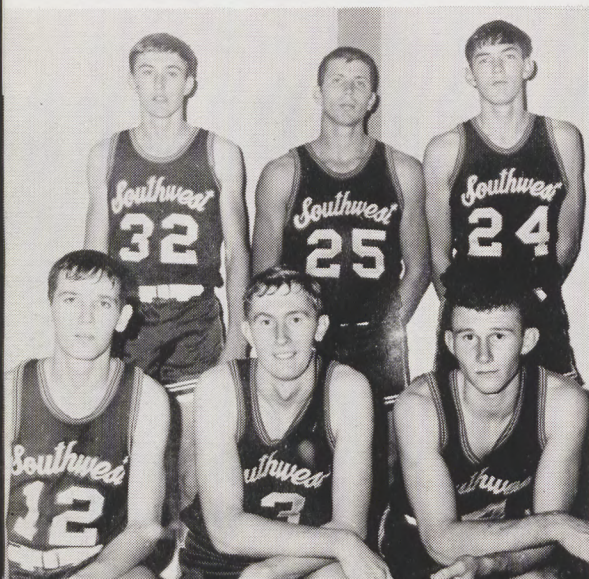

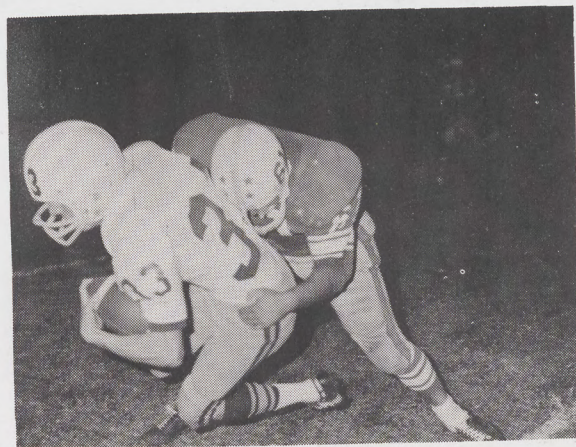

The other guys don't know it. but there's a real one under the paper.

We got all the ice out of Mama's freezer!

Sambo and Tomma

Pierce and Couey

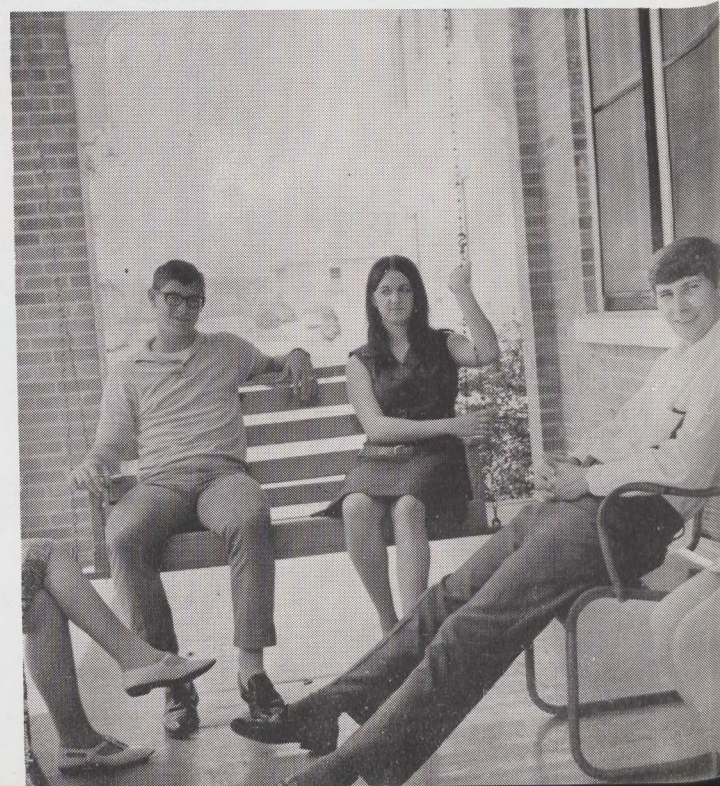

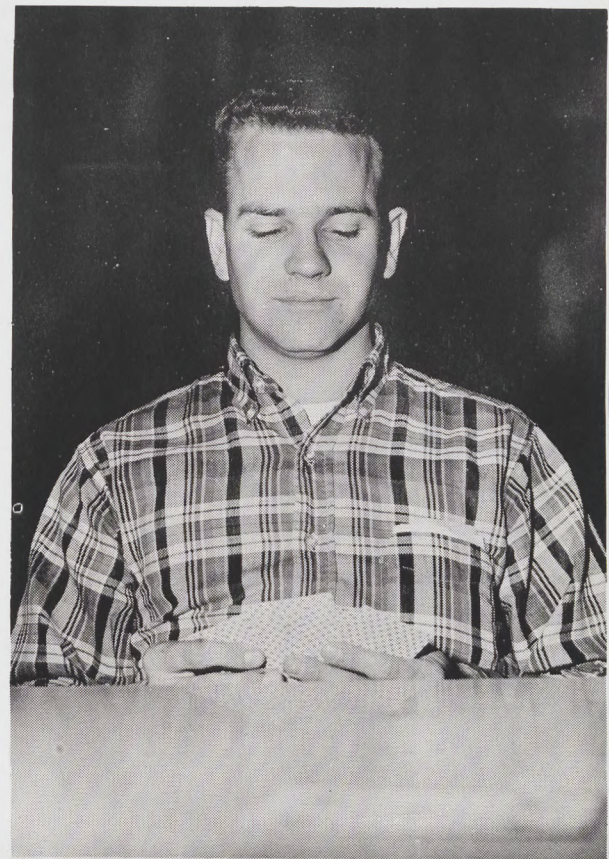

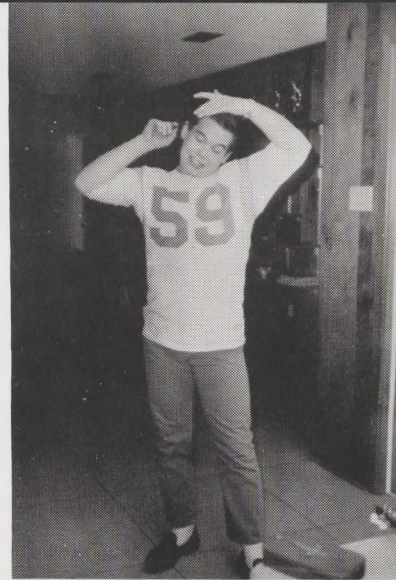

Up, Up and Away!

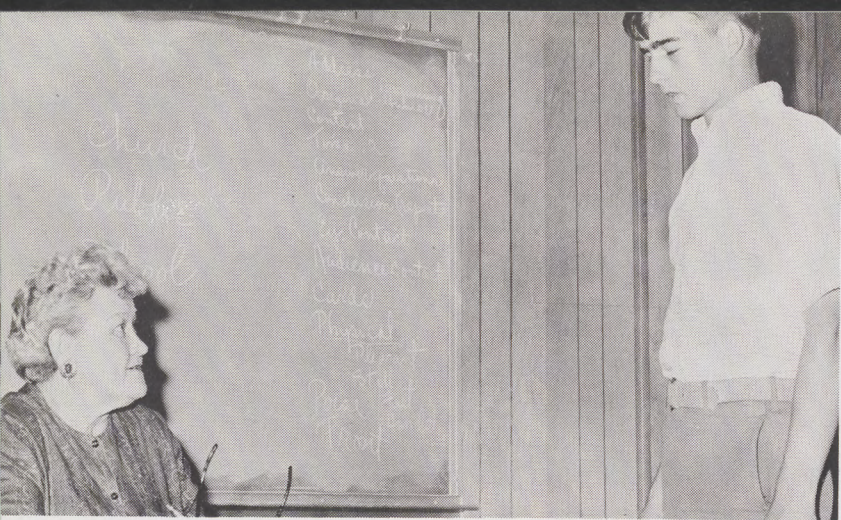

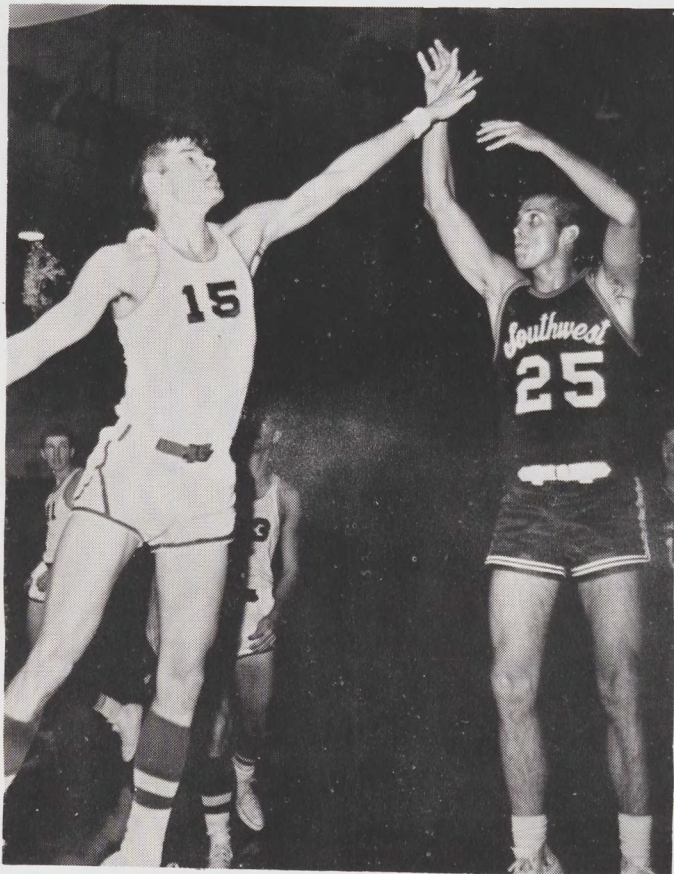

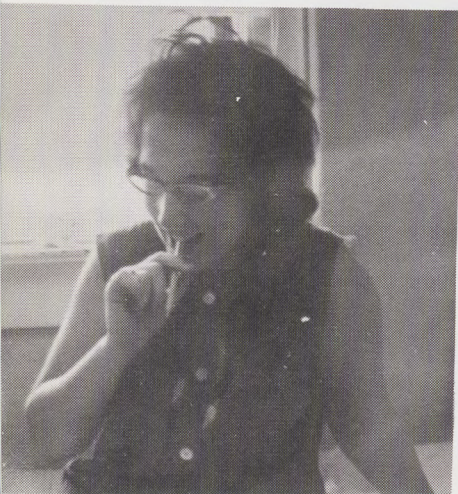

Anybody see the yearbook's float?

Playing patty cake the hard way.

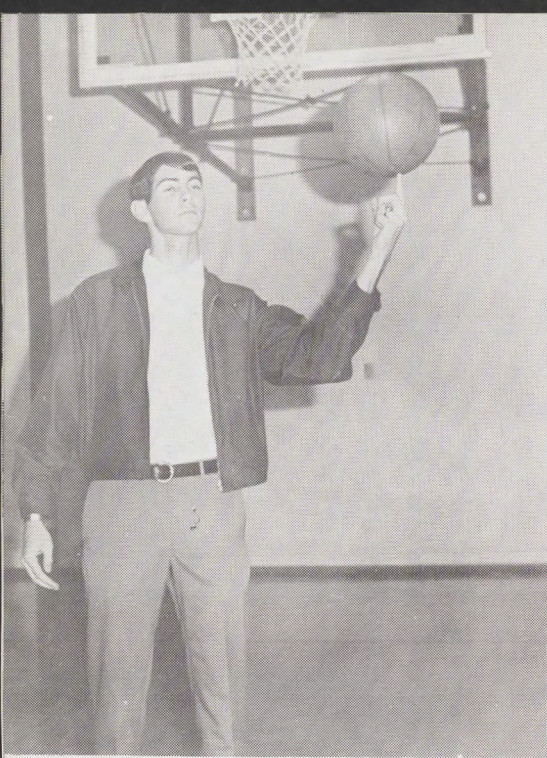

Oh, that's a funny one!

Worms???

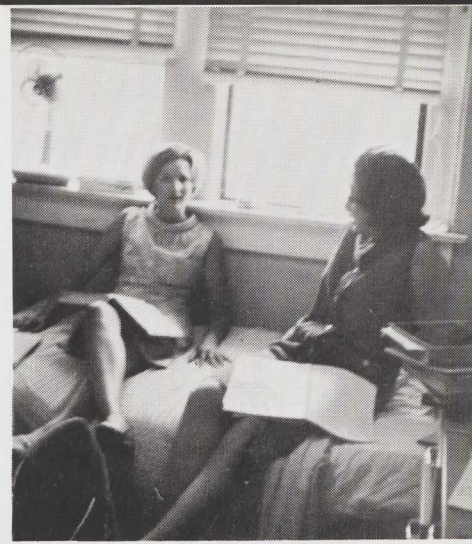

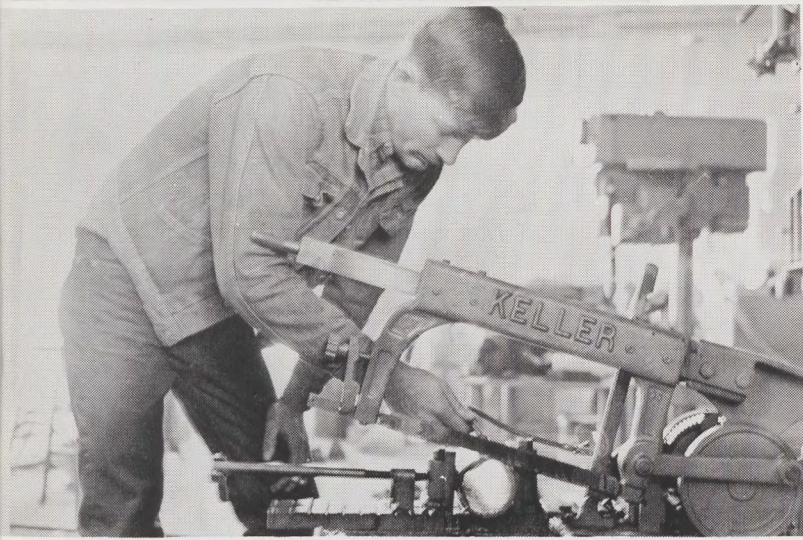

You think you can do better?

Makes you wonder, doesn't it?

New dance step, Miss Hay?

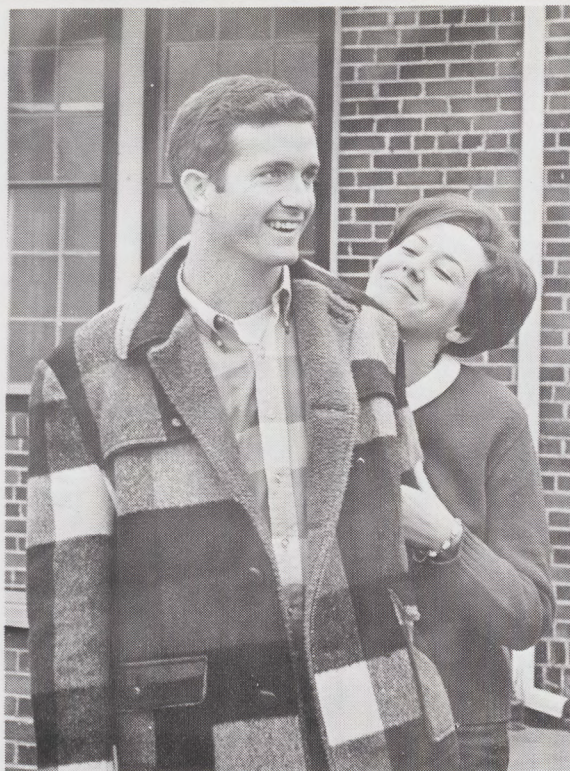

Grin, even if the car is hot!

Henry and Jeannie

Can I really ride it?

WE SALUTE
PATRONS

To say simply "Thank you" and close the last page of the WHISPERING PINES would be a very grave mistake on my part as editor. Those two words, although they say much, cannot begin to express the gratitude and appreciation that I feel toward the many people who helped complete this book of memories.

Mrs. Stephenson, as sponsor, has worked very hard helping to correct errors and making certain the pages were complete and to the press on time.

Mr. Wilbur Pickett and Mrs. Julia Blount of the Enterprise-Journal Staff have been especially helpful in giving me advice on the appearance of a yearbook.

Photographs, of course, make a yearbook, and I sincerely thank Mr. J. Lyons Balser and the annual staff photographers for doing an excellent job.

Most of all, I would like to express my appreciation . . .

to a very capable and understanding staff. Without them there would be no WHISPERING PINES Yearbook.

Now, our space has run out, so we say. "Enjoy re-living wonderful moments at SMJC through the 1968 WHISPERING PINES."
